About SASS: LatAm Graduate Business Program

San Andrés Summer School (SASS): LatAm Graduate Business Program is designed for graduate students in business who want to deeply understand Latin American markets, network with other business students from around the world.

Taught in English, this intensive program approaches business in emerging markets from various perspectives in strategy, management, finance, sustainability and innovation. Cases examined are primarily from Argentina and other LatAm countries.

The program will be instructed on-site and offered in 3 modules. The program also includes workshops and talks with local business leaders. Students are offered optional cultural activities and opportunities to network with Universidad de San Andrés students.

About Universidad de San Andrés

Founded in 1989 by the Scottish Community in Argentina and inspired by the pedagogical system of the liberal arts colleges, Universidad de San Andrés (UdeSA) is a privately-owned, not for profit institution with a complete academic offering in various fields.

Its mission is to build an academic community of professors, students and alumni motivated by the search for truth and contributing to progress in Argentina and to the well-being of its citizens.

With more than 10.000 students enrolled, Universidad de San Andrés provides the possibility of studying with professors doing cutting-edge research. It is one of the few universities in Argentina with a large, full-time faculty. Most faculty members hold Ph.D. degrees from top European, US and Latin American universities. The Universidad de San Andrés MBA is consistently ranked among the top 3 MBAs in Argentina by Apertura, América Economía and other top Latin American business journals.
